POLYNESIAN WEDDING CEREMONIES

What more romantic place on earth to exchange the vows of love and commitment than Bora Bora, where dreams become reality. At the base of the Mount Otemanu, in the midst of turquoise and sapphire waters, our Polynesian wedding ceremonies promise a magical event to forever cherish in your heart

We offer six wedding ceremonies: two take place on our white sand beach, two on a catamaran and two on a private island. You will find pure romance while also discovering the beauty, hospitality and charm of the Polynesian culture.

Ceremonies on a Catamaran

○ Te Vaa Ceremony

This unique private and simple ceremony will enchant you with memories for a lifetime together. You will be dressed and prepared by a Polynesian Wedding Coordinator in the traditional white wedding pareos, floral crowns at 4.30 pm. You will then be escorted along the shore to our dock where a catamaran awaits you with the approach of the setting sun to sail the crystal waters of the lagoon bathed in the soft final rays of light. The catamaran has been lovingly decorated and is furnished with the Polynesian thrones of the King and Queen for you to sit upon. As you glide through the rippling water, the Polynesian Wedding Coordinator and a musician will perform the ceremony of hearts to unite the couple. Each couple is given a unique Tahitian name, which is also inscribed on the wedding certificate given to you. To complete the ceremony you are wrapped as one in the traditional-Polynesian wedding quilt, the Tifaifai and your union is blessed with a glass of Champagne. Duration 1 hour.

This package includes:

2 pareos, flower crowns and leis

Catamaran cruise

Full bottle of champagne (75 cl), served on the catamaran

1 marriage certificate, presented on the catamaran

Master of ceremonies

○ Te Aarii Ceremony

This truly unique and breathtaking ceremony will captivate and enchant you with memories for a lifetime together. The ceremony is a combination of events that occur on the water as well as on the land, thus marrying the two vital elements of life.

You will be dressed and prepared by a Polynesian Wedding Coordinator in the traditional white wedding pareos, floral crowns at 4.30 pm you will then be escorted along the shore to our dock where a catamaran awaits you with the approach of the setting sun to sail the crystal waters of the lagoon bathed in the soft final rays of light. The catamaran has been lovingly decorated in flowers and greens and is furnished with the Polynesian thrones of the King and Queen for the bride and groom to sit upon.

As you glide through the rippling water, the Polynesian Wedding Coordinator will perform the ceremony of hearts to unite the couple.

Throughout the ceremony, Tahitian songs and dances are performed in honor of the couple's union. Each couple is given a unique Tahitian name, which is also inscribed on the wedding certificate given to you. To complete the ceremony you are wrapped as one in the traditional Polynesian wedding quilt, the Tifaifai and the union is blessed. As you are unwrapped you are given a tropical love cocktail adorned with flowers and fruit.

When the catamaran returns to the Pearl Beach, the Polynesian dancers will escort you to a special spot on the beach, bejeweled with coconut palms. Here you will enjoy the dancers and orchestra who perform a show for your private viewing pleasure.

With the last beat of the drum, dancers escort you back to your bungalow where the fruit basket, champagne and Honeymoon bed of flowers await you.

A romantic candlelight dinner with Champagne will be served to you in the privacy of your bungalow with a delicious and luxurious menu prepared by our chef whose finale is a Polynesian wedding cake made especially for you. This original and exceptional wedding experience is a ceremony fit for royalty.

Duration 2 hours
