POLYNESIAN WEDDING CEREMONIES

What more romantic place on earth to exchange the vows of love and commitment than Bora Bora, where dreams become reality. At the base of the Mount Otemanu, in the midst of turquoise and sapphire waters, our Polynesian wedding ceremonies promise a magical event to forever cherish in your heart.

○ Te Ruau Ceremony -Ceremonies on the beach

This ceremony takes place on the white sand beach covered by multicolored flowers and coconut palm fronds, with the emerald green Mount Otemanu rising majestically across the crystal waters of the lagoon.

A Polynesian Master of Ceremonies will prepare and dress you in the traditional white wedding pareos and floral crowns. Each will arrive at the beach by a decorated outrigger canoe with hymns of Polynesian love songs sung by the group of musicians and dancers who are expecting you on the beach.

A Polynesian Master of Ceremonies will await you to bless the union. Throughout the ceremony, Tahitian songs and dances are performed in honor of the couple's union. Each couple is given a unique Tahitian name, which is also inscribed on the wedding certificate given to the couple. To complete the ceremony you are wrapped as one in the traditional Polynesian wedding quilt, the Tifaifai. Your union is blessed and as you are unwrapped you are given tropical love cocktail, and the dance group performs the last traditional wedding dance. You will then be escorted to your bungalow where a fruit basket and Honeymoon bed of flowers await you. Duration 45 minutes

This package includes :

- ✿ 2 Pareos, flower crowns and leis
- ✿ 2 Wedding cocktails, served on the beach
- ✿ 1 Marriage certificate, presented on the beach
- ✿ 2 Canoes to transport the couple on the beach
- ✿ Master of ceremonies
- ✿ Songs and dances on the beach
- ✿ Bed of flowers, in your bungalow
- ✿ Fruit basket, in your bungalow

○ Iti Raa Mahana / Underwater wedding

○ Te Arii Ceremony

This truly unique and breathtaking ceremony will captivate and enchant you with memories for a lifetime together. The ceremony is a combination of events that occur on the water as well as on land, thus marrying the two vital elements of life.

You will be dressed and prepared by a Polynesian Master of Ceremonies in the traditional white wedding pareos and floral crowns. You will then be escorted along the shore to our dock where an outrigger canoe awaits you with the approach of the setting sun to cruise the crystal waters of the lagoon bathed in the sunset. The canoe has been decorated in flowers and greens and is furnished with the Polynesian thrones of the King and Queen for the bride and groom to sit upon.

As you glide through the rippling water, the Polynesian Master of Ceremonies will perform the ceremony of hearts to unite the couple.

Throughout the ceremony, Tahitian songs and dances are performed in honor of the couple's union. Each couple is given a unique Tahitian name, which is also inscribed on the wedding certificate given to you. To complete the ceremony you are wrapped as one in the traditional-Polynesian wedding quilt, the Tifaifai and the union is blessed. As you are unwrapped you are given a tropical love cocktail adorned with flowers and fruit. When the canoe returns to the Bora Bora Pearl Beach, the Polynesian dancers will escort you to a special spot on the beach, bejeweled with coconut palms. Here you will enjoy the dancers and orchestra who perform dances for your private viewing. With the last beat of the drum, dancers escort you back to your bungalow where the fruit basket, champagne and Honeymoon bed of flowers await you.

A romantic candlelight dinner with Champagne will be served to you in the privacy of your bungalow with a delicious and luxurious menu prepared by our chef whose finale is a Polynesian wedding cake. This original and exceptional wedding experience is a ceremony fit for royalty. Duration 2 hours
